Happy December!

Life has been good this year. We are all well, having survived heat, draught and "The Year of the Eyes." I hope you feel similarly blessed. More personal tales will come in our Christmas Letter!

NOVEMBER 27, 2012. WOW! What a surprise! "So Good to See You" ML made the cover of "Dog Gone Art" Magazine! Many thanks to Jaynie Spector, owner of Dog & Horse Fine Art in Charleston, SC, for submitting my image that the editor selected! Jaynie's gallery is featured in this issue. NOVEMBER 30, 2012. I have only smiles! Tim Newton, Chairman of the Board of The Salmagundi Club called to congratulate me on my new membership! Founded in 1871, The Salmagundi Club is one of the oldest art organizations in the United States. Master painters, Sherrie McGraw, Jacqueline Kamin and Margret E. Short suggested I apply - and - endorsed me for membership. Thomas Moran, William Merritt Chase, Louis Comfort Tiffany and N.C. Wyeth have all been members of The Salmagundi. Thank you friends and board members of Salmagundi; I am honored to be in such amazing company. To learn more about The Salmagundi Club, NYC, please click here: <http://www.salmagundi.org> This is so new that my dues may not have arrived and thus, I may not be listed on the Salmagundi site just yet. Patience, please, Photo by Jay J. Johnson.
