SCULPTURE HAPPENINGS :: SEPT. 2007 :: VOLUME THREE, NUMBER TWO

Hello friends,

I hope summer was good to you. August 22, I drove to Loveland, CO, to begin about three weeks of working with my production team. The drive across Kansas was beautiful; the colors, textures and light could be subjects of at least fifty gorgeous landscape paintings!

Five new pieces will be available in very limited numbers for mid-December delivery: two life-sized miniature smoothies (MS), "Dreaming of Tomatoes MS" and "Siesta MS", and three 1:6 scales: "Squirrel Season-Long", "Sunnyside Up" and "Life's a Ball-Long". Please contact me now to reserve yours!

Click on Upcoming Events to learn where to see my work in shows across the country. Highlights include:

Through Oct. 14, "Paws & Reflect: Art of Canines", The Wildlife Experience, Parker, CO. "Paws & Reflect" will travel to museums nationwide for three years. Yes, that is "So Good to See You" on the brochure cover!

"Dreaming of Tomatoes MS"

Sept. 10-23, Audubon Artists 65th Annual Exhibition, Salmagundi Club, NYC.

Oct. 20 - Nov. 4, American Art in Miniature, Gilcrease Museum, Tulsa, OK.

Nov. 17 - Jan. 1, 2008, The Society of Animal Artists' "Small Works, Big Impressions", The Wildlife Experience, Parker, CO

Dec. 6- Jan. 6, 2008, American Women Artists (AWA) Master Signature Members' Exhibition, LaKae Gallery, Scottsdale, AZ.

In other news --- as of June, I'm delighted to report that my work is collected on five continents!

Questions? Comments? I'd love to hear from you. Tell me what is going on your life!

If you prefer not to receive my occasional newsletter, please just ask me to remove you from my list of persons who have expressed interest in my work. On the other hand, if you know of anyone interested in receiving my newsletter, I would appreciate your sharing it with them.

Thank you for your time. Be good to yourself and your four-legged friends. Many thanks for being in my life!

Sincerely, Joy
